Weddings and Conferences

Easily accessible by air or road from Christchurch, Dunedin or Queestown, the MacKenzie Country Inn is the perfect place for your getaway conference or country style wedding. With a variety of beautifully presented conference facilities, we are able to accommodate your group - large or small.

Take advantage of the peaceful setting of the MacKenzie and hold your conference in an environment free from noise and distraction so that you and your team can focus and get the most out of your time together. For the ultimate business retreat, make the most of all the MacKenzie Country Inn has to offer and book it exclusively for your group.

Venues and Capacities

With a variety of spacious rooms available, we have facilities to accommodate up to 260 of your delegates.

Our purpose designed rooms have plenty of natural light and easy access from the ground floor. There is a connecting private courtyard for you to use, ideal for both morning and afternoon teas and lunches. For a taste of fresh air, the expansive lawns are perfect to mingle and stretch the legs during breaks, or are perfect for outdoor team building exercises.
